We want you to succeed in your interview, so we've put together some tips to help you feel confident and prepared.

Check them out!

Explore Our World

Take some time to explore Percona's website to learn about our commitment to open source and our core values. Consider how your experience and skills align with our mission.

Percona is a remote-first company, and we use Zoom for our interviews. Please install and test Zoom ahead of time. Choose a quiet, distraction-free space and ensure your background appears professional.

Tips for Crushing Your Percona Interview

Prepare Thoughtfully

Have your resume ready and review the job description before the interview. Reflect on your career journey and the unique strengths you bring.

Think about how your background can support Percona's goals and contribute to our continued success.

Showcase Your Expertise

Be ready to talk about your skills and accomplishments. We're excited to hear how your experience can add value to our team. This is a two-way conversation—please come prepared with questions!

What to Expect

During our conversation, we'll cover topics such as Percona's culture, team dynamics, and the challenges and opportunities tied to the role.

We value your insights and see this as a collaborative conversation to explore how we can succeed together!

